[REDACTED]Details:

On April 2, 2012, Special Agents (SA) [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met in person with [REDACTED] Impact Academy of Arts & Technology, 2560 Darwin Street, Hayward, California.

During the meeting, Agents communicated that during a separate Federal investigation, a search warrant had been executed and a computer seized. During the initial review of the seized computer, there were what looked to be documents containing personal information that pertained to the Impact Academy of Arts & Technology. [REDACTED] was shown samples of the documents. [REDACTED] verified that some of the documents were from Impact Academy, although not all, and looked to range from 2009 to the present.

[REDACTED] and other administrators present at the time of the interview said the data contained student information or pictures, including items such as grades, that were private in nature and a non-staff member should not have had. The documents were ones that were stored both on a central server and on local computer workstations of staff members.

To this date, no evidence has been found to identify a subject in this intrusion and the school has been unable to identify how and where the files were taken from.

On May 21, 2012, SA [redacted] received an email from Chief [redacted] [redacted] United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of California, stating the US Attorney's Office was closing the investigation.
